Life Long Learning & Extension

Yuva Shikshan Workshop

Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune and K. K. Wagh College of Arts, Commerce, Science and Computer Science, Chandori was organized "Yuva Shikshan Workshop" under Lifelong Learning and Extension Department.

The program was chaired by the principal of the college. B.G. Wagh. Dr. V. R. Khapli was present as a Chief Guest.

The First Lecture was delivered by The Director of Munje Institute of Management and Computer Studies Hon. Dr. Priti Kulkarni. He opined that, "Currently there are a large number of skill courses. You can become self-reliant by taking training from it. You can also move towards the future through skill education. Rather than just graduating and becoming unemployed, take up skill training courses.

In Second Lecture Dr. P. R. Bhabad (Principal, Senior College Saikheda) told the Importance of Education to the students. He said "The overall development of human life depends on his education. As much as he acquires knowledge in education, he reaches the peak of success. The direction of education is important for the overall development of man and his basic rights. "Youth can play an important role in making the country an economic superpower and an effective nation.

The program was coordinated by Prof. Abhale A. S.

Financial Literacy Workshop

Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune and K. K. Wagh College of Arts, Commerce, Science and Computer Science, Chandori was organized A “Financial Literacy Workshop” under the Department of Lifelong Learning and Extension.

The program was chaired by the principal of the college. B.G. Wagh. The first lecture was delivered by Dr. D R. Bachhav (Principal of Vani College). He said financial literacy of economically disadvantaged sections will be the first step towards effective financial inclusion in India. Security, Trust, Ease of Access, Convenience and Collaboration are the five pillars that create positive feelings towards financial institutions among consumers and the link that connects these pillars is a varied and consistent program of financial literacy.

In second lecture Dr. S. D. Joshi (Principal of Bytco College, Nashikroad) Said “Financial literacy will enable a large disadvantaged section of the society to make informed financial decisions. This will enable these people to handle financial affairs and in turn will help in improving their standard of living. Not only this, it will contribute significantly to the overall financial system and the performance of the economy. Every financial institution and bank needs to work with the view that if the customer becomes 'financially literate' then he will become the 'financially smart' citizen of tomorrow.
